INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member of
Forum Capital Securities LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Forum Capital Securities LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2003. This statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Forum Capital Securities LLC as of December 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Nature of business

Forum Capital Securities LLC (f/k/a Forum Capital Partners, LLC) (the "Company"), a wholly-owned entity of FCP Holdings LLC, is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company's business is primarily comprised of advisory fees for capital raising and private placement services.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Advisory Income

Advisory fees are recognized as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the related contract.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as a limited liability company under the applicable provisions of the income tax laws. Accordingly, no income taxes are paid by the Company as earnings and losses will flow through directly to the member.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Net capital requirement

The Company is a member of the NASD, and is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company's net capital was approximately $38,000, which was approximately $33,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of approximately $5,000.

4. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the SEC Rule 15c3-3 and, therefore, is not required to maintain a "Special Reserve Bank Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers".

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

5. Related party transactions

Pursuant to a service agreement, the Company's parent provides various services and other items to the Company. These include professional services, physical premises, utilities, the use of fixed assets, travel, insurance, subscriptions, taxes, personnel and other general and administrative services for which the Company pays its parent. For the year ended December 31, 2003, this payment amounted to $82,500.

6. Major customer

Approximately 79% of advisory fees earned in 2003 were from one customer.
